DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-5 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: as to claims 1 and 2, patentability resides, at least in part, in the information terminal apparatus having a thin housing structure including at least a display; a battery pack and/or a battery pack compartment member including a front surface facing a direction of the thin housing, a back surface facing away from the thin housing and a rotary support mechanism such that the battery pack is freely opened and closed from a lower portion of a rear wall side of the display, wherein the rotated battery pack is used as a stand to enable the display to rise to the erect position and the front and back surfaces of the battery pack are directly exposed to air, in combination with the other limitations of the base claims; as to claims 3-5, patentability resides, at least in part, in the information terminal apparatus having a thin housing structure including at least a display; a battery pack compartment member including a front surface facing a direction of the thin housing, a back surface facing away from the thin housing and a rotary support mechanism such that the battery pack compartment member is freely opened and closed from a lower portion of a rear wall side of the display, wherein the rotated battery pack compartment member is used as a stand to enable the display to rise to the erect position and the front and back surfaces of the battery pack compartment member are directly exposed to air, in combination with the other limitations of the base claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
